

Ely's Press Release

Littman Krooks LLP, with offices in New York City and White Plains is pleased to announce that Ely J. Rosenzweig, Esq. has been named Partner, effective as of August 1, 2005. Mr. Rosenzweig is a Rabbi at Congregation Anshe Sholom in New Rochelle.

Bernard A. Krooks, managing partner comments that "Mr. Rosenzweig, better known to his Congregation as "Rabbi Ely" has been an incredible asset to the firm as an attorney. I look forward to continuing to tap into his leadership qualities that have been instrumental in the success of our firm. He is an extraordinary source of knowledge and guidance to his clients and colleagues alike. On behalf of everyone at the firm, I wish him many years of success. We are honored to welcome him as a Partner."

Mr. Rosenzweig practices in the area of elder law. He lives in New Rochelle with his wife and five children.